

THE LUCRATIVE LORD STANLEY

The NHL and NHLPA have established a bonus pool of $32 million for the 2020 Stanley Cup Playoffs. Unlike other professional sports in North America, the truly unique feature is that the players and management decide how a club's share is divided among the team members.

2019/20 PLAYOFF BONUSES

* Teams are awarded a pool of money and will be responsible to divide the funds. GAVIN assumes all 23 active players will receive an equal share. A portion of funds will be allocated to the players who were with the team, however did not participate in games. In addition, the President Cup winning, Boston Bruins, have been award a team bonus.
